

When washing woolens, rinse in a mild vinegar solution to restore sheen and softness. He who reigns within himself and rules his passions, desires and fears is more than a king.—Milton.

We have a brand new broker this week to introduce to the Press readers—Mrs. E. Mildred Patterson with offices at 1903-731st st., Lomita.

For high school and college training, Mildred is a product of the Los Angeles School System.

MRS. E. MILDRED PATTERSON

having been graduated from high school and taken two year's training at Los Angeles City College.

Mildred was born in Topeka, Kansas, and although she is not all hesitant about telling the exact year, we think this should be a lady's personal privilege and we'll not pass it along!

Before migrating to California with her parents in 1921, one of Mildred's most graphic and appalling memories is that of her family's worldly possessions being swept away by a giant hurricane in Galveston, Texas.

John and Mildred Patterson were thoroughly sold on this area—Lomita in particular—when they first saw it. Mildred has been many places and known many people and is sure this is best of all. The size of Lomita, the friendliness of the people and the general tenor of the neighborhood rang a bell with the Pattersons.

This was the place for them and their two little girls. And the real estate business is a natural for Mildred because she enjoys working with people and the challenge each new situation presents. As the head of her own real estate office, with her husband working with her, Mildred's plans include a very active business career with not too much time for outside interests. But sewing will stay as a top-interest activity and in between times she will get some done!
